“ My Good boy, I didn't think I'd miss you like I do, you were always there to meet me when I'd come home whether I was gone 20 minutes or 10 hours, you weren't the snuggling type but you'd always stay close. I miss your snoring as you'd laid at my feet every night. I was looking at pictures and you always had such a sober look on your face, always so serious lol. I hope your running and playing with the girl now & know you were loved ❤️
